DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-15, 19-35, and 39-56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Number 6,606,661 to Agrawal et al. in view of U.S. Patent Number 6,389,028 to Bondarenko et al..
3. Claims 1-15, 19-35 and 39-56 are rejected for reasons presented in the previous office action.
4. Claims 16-18 and 36-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Number 6,606,661 to Agrawal et al. in view of U.S. Patent Number 6,389,028 to Bondarenko et al. in view of U.S. Patent Number 6,011,537 to Slotznick.
5. Claims 16-18 and 36-38 are rejected for reasons presented in the previous office action.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 12/29/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant argues the following points: (a) Agrawal does not teach that the client may navigate from the resource and remain in the queue; (b) Agrawal does not disclose that the socket of a server is of a web site; and (c) Nowhere does Bondarenko teach or suggest that a user that was in the queue but has missed the opportunity to access the scarce resource may be allowed to access the resource upon return even though the desired maximum capacity has already been reached..

7. First, with regard to point (b), the summary of the Agrawal invention makes it clear that the invention is directed towards Web servers (col. 2, lines 28-31). With regard to point (a), since the invention of Agrawal is directed towards Web servers, a client can inherently navigate from a resource and remain in the queue by opening another browser. With regard to point (c), claims 20 and 40 do not do anything different for the “late” request. Though Bondarenko does not explicitly teach a “late” request, Bondarenko teaches the same process for fulfilling the late request.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
